

Please support Proceeding 98-67 to make the general public aware of relay services for people with impaired hearing or impaired speech, who cannot use the telephone in the usual manner. Without awareness, people who receive a call through relay often hang up, are rude, or are confused about the message they're receiving.